Why I chose reveal.js for my presentation

I chose reveal.js because I am very familiar with it, and is a very good framework used to create HTML presentations. Also my time to research and work on my assignments is very limited due to my current life situation. I love reveal as it also comes with many themes and transitions and many other cool features.